Inventory Reduction Sale

With the Holidays and 2016 rapidly approaching, I've decided to begin the Year End Clearance Sale a few weeks early this year. As most know, we usually have a year end mineral sale in December to reduce our inventory prior to the New Year. This helps with our taxes and gives everyone a chance to save lots of money on their mineral purchases. It's also a great way to shop for gifts if you have other mineral collectors in the family, or even give a gift to yourself!

To simplify the mineral sale, I'm just going to invite best offers on everything on the website. Just email me your best offer on the specimen or specimens you have interest in and we'll work out a deal that makes everyone happy.

You can choose from all showrooms, both old and new, and there are no limits on how many specimens you can offer on. Even consignment items are included in the sale so please feel free to browse and offer on anything!

All Reasonable Offers will be Accepted!

All Mineral Showrooms are Included in the Sale!

This Sale will run until December 31st!
