* Huge Keystone Mineral Update and Sale

The sale enters its second week and activity continues to be brisk! Last week I was away at the new mineral show in The Woodlands, acquiring new items for future updates. Since returning I have been shipping orders non-stop and if your order hasn't arrived yet, it's on the way and will arrive early next week.

In the meantime, I'll be updating the Keystone Showrooms this weekend with new specimens and removing sold items to make for quicker browsing. There are hundreds of fine specimens in the offering with more to come. ALSO, I am now accepting offers on all specimens in the other showrooms on the website. The Exceptional, Tucson, Denver, Gold, Silver, Rhodochrosite, etc. showrooms are now part of the sale. I can't guarantee keystone discounts in these rooms but the discounts will be considerable and I am open to all reasonable offers there.

How does the Sale work? Every specimen in the Keystone Showrooms is shown with its original price and discounted price (Usually around 50% of the original price). During the Double Keystone Sale, the discounted price is discounted a second time by another 50% for a huge double discount in the range of 75% off the original price! These are our lowest prices ever and specimens usually sell very quickly so please reserve your favorite items as quickly as possible!

Nearly 300 Fine Mineral Specimens at 75% Discounts!
There is no Limit and Layaways are Available!
Purchase as many Discounted Specimens as you Like!
