Hi Folks

This is kind of a strange time for us to update. But I like to mix it up, and may be doing more 8AM updates in the months ahead. So, our update is tomorrow, Saturday, Oct. 14 at 8AM US Mountain Time.

It's a shortened update of 24 rather than the usual 36. There are a few rare phosphates you might be interested in, but primarily it is sulfides, coppers & copper minerals and silvers.

Here's a short list, but not all....

- Algodonite
- Anglesite (Tsumeb)
- Azurite
- Bismuth
- Copper
- Cordierite (above photo)
- Galena (Platteville)
- Marcasite
- Rickardite
- Silver

Have a nice time, a nice weekend, and GO CUBBIES!!!!

Thanks for doing business with us.

Sincerely,
Tom
