New Acquisition - New Update

WEINRICH

— MINERALS —

We are very pleased to announce the acquisition of the Bruce and Dale Wadleigh collection

There are close to 5000 specimens from worldwide localities. There is a wide range of sizes present, though many are good miniature and small cabinet sized pieces.

An overview of the collection can be seen in The Mineralogical Record supplement, Mineral Collections of the American Northeast. Look for frequent website updates featuring this material as we proceed to unpack, clean and prepare the specimens for sale.

Over 80 new specimens from this collection now added to the website. Many more to come in the following days.
